1. Claims litigation concerning the Debtors' ZAI product shall be limited initially to the 10 individual claims filed by the Debtors on April 12, 2002 as amended by certain claimants on May 30, 2002 and objected to on June 10, 2002 on behalf of the following individuals claimants, all of whom filed ZAI product liability claims against the Debtors prior to the petition date: Marco Barbanti, Ralph Busch, William Pat Harris, Jan Hunter, Edward M. Lindholm, James and Doris McMurchie, John and Margery Prebil, Paul Price, John Sufnarowski, and Stephen B. Walsh. These 10 individual claimants shall hereinafter be referred to as the "ZAI Claimants."

2. The Court hereby sets the following schedule to litigate the ZAI science issue:

A. Fact discovery shall be limited to the issue of what science demonstrates regarding the health risks of exposure to ZAI and will be conducted from the date of this Order through December 31, 2002. Unless the discovery cutoff is extended by the Court for good cause, no fact discovery with a response date after December 31, 2002 shall be allowed. Motions to the Court for extensions of the time provided by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for responses to document requests, interrogatories, and inspections and testing of property shall be granted only for good cause shown. Unless good cause is shown for an extension, fact depositions shall be limited to eight hours of questioning per side, not including questioning time in depositions taken prior to the bankruptcy filing;

B. The ZAI Claimants shall serve their FRCP 26(a)(2) expert disclosures on or before January 15, 2003. Grace shall serve its expert disclosures on or before January 31, 2003. Depositions of the ZAI Claimants' expert(s) shall be conducted from February 3, 2003 - February 28, 2003. Depositions of Grace's expert(s) shall be conducted from March 3, 2003 - March 31, 2003;

C. Debtors or the ZAI Claimants may file on or before April 30, 2003, Rule 42 consolidation motions or related Daubert summary judgment motions, based upon the asserted absence of a reliable scientific basis to maintain or oppose an action for the alleged risk of harm from ZAI. The responding parties' response to such motions are due on or before May 26, 2003, and the propounding parties' replies are due on or before June 6, 2003. A hearing on these motions will be held on June 30 and July 1, 2003 in Pittsburgh, PA;

D. In the event that the Court finds any material disputed facts, an FRCP 42 common issue bench trial would be conducted as soon as the Court's schedule allows to decide the unresolved issues. The Court shall, if necessary, set the date for the final pretrial conference at the conclusion of the hearing on the Daubert summary judgment motions;

E. The Court hereby postpones further consideration of matters relating to class certification until the conclusion of the proceedings outlined above.
